

Citizens' privacy in their own homes should be more important than the mercenary wishes of telemarketers to invade that privacy. (They never sell to me, anyway. I hang up.) DO NOT mess with NJ's Do Not Call Law. Residents here appreciate our government's protection. We are not happy with Washington's slavery to business -- while at the same time destroying the dollar